The Iron Springs Chateau's newest production

"Jenny Jones – Spy Catcher!"

The Iron Springs Chateau is excited to announce the opening of "Jenny Jones – Spy Catcher!" on Friday, June 23, 2017. This side splittingly funny show, written by John Burkhart, is a 1940's Newspaper Office melodrama where the evil foreign spies Hedy D. Lamarr and Drat Gopherbreath are trying to steal government secrets and achieve world domination! Jenny Jones, reporter and editor of the "Dear Mary" column, along with newspaper office manager, Debby Deadline, help government agent Morse Code capture the spies and foil their evil plot!

As always, audience participation makes for a hilarious adventure where you'll boo the villain, cheer the hero, and oooh and ahhhh the lovely heroine. The show is directed by Robert Kelly, musical direction by Bruce Littrell and Bonnie Hausknecht, costumes by Stephanie Bradley and Karen Holloway and choreography by Daisya Downen, Vicki Kelly and Rebekah Ratterree.

The melodrama is followed by a sing-along intermission and a hilarious 1970's Olio with 1970's songs, dances, jokes and even "Star Wars" performed in 5 minutes!
